These meetings are not Commission hearings of the kind that the Commission normally holds before changing one of its formal decisions. The Commission will provide governments and all interested persons with further opportunities to make their views known to the Commission before the Commission considers any changes to its 1921 Order.

At this time, the Commission is looking for the best way to consider Montana's request, and the Commission would find it very helpful, in this context, to hear the views of all concerned and to obtain further background information that may be relevant to the questions that Montana has raised.

At the beginning of each meeting, a Commissioner will outline the IJC's responsibilities and the terms of the 1921 Order, and the Accredited Officers will speak about how they are implementing the Order and the situation in the St Mary and Milk River basins as they see it. The meetings will then be open to everyone who is interested in this matter and speakers will be recognized on a first-come-first-heard basis. As the time for each speaker will be limited, it would be helpful if you or your officials could provide their detailed comments in writing and be prepared to present a brief summary of those comments to the Commission at the consultation sessions.

To assist persons attending these meetings, the Commission is posting information on its website about Article VI of the Boundary Waters Treaty, the Commission's 1921 Order, and copies of correspondence which the Commission has received from governments and others with respect to this matter. If public access to the Internet is not available in any community where meetings will be held, this information will also be deposited in a library or other public place in that community.

Similar letters are being sent to the Canadian and United States governments, and to the governments of Montana and Alberta.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Herb Gray". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Herb" and the last name "Gray" both starting with a capital letter.

The Rt. Hon. Herb Gray, P.C., C.C., Q.C.
